

Doug Siglin

Volunteer since retiring

Chesapeake Climate Action Network, Citizen's Poplar Point Working Group, Rebuilding Together

Living Classrooms of the National Capital Region

Managing Director

Stepped off the Board of Directors to guide a 10-person DC staff delivering education, environment, youth development and career training programs for a well-respected nonprofit organization with a 35-year history of successful programs in Baltimore and a 20-year history in DC.

RainCredits

Founder and Chief Executive

Created a private firm to work with the DC Government's Stormwater Retention Credit system, designing and installing BMPs that allowed churches and other nonprofits to monetize rooftops and parking areas and reduce water pollution. Secured investors and managed contractors to design and implement projects.

Anacostia Waterfront Trust

Founder, Board Member and Executive Director

Founded, created and led for five years a nonprofit dedicated to comprehensive improvement of the Anacostia River corridor in the heart of the Nation's Capital, comprehensively addressing water quality, 1200+ acres of federal and DC public lands, and nearby communities.

Chesapeake Bay Foundation

Federal Affairs Director and Anacostia Director

Led CBF's DC office for twelve years as federal affairs and Anacostia River Initiative director. Secured several federal policy and funding victories, including nearly half a billion dollars in new funds for the Chesapeake Bay in the 2008 federal farm bill. Nationally-sought speaker and writer on clean water policy and politics.

American Rivers

Vice President for Conservation

Led a 28-person $2.5 million national conservation and advocacy department arrayed across four regional offices. Designed a new program area focused on helping communities to achieve maximum economic values from rivers and streams.

The Nature Conservancy

Government and Community Relations Director

Led the 18-person, $1.2 million government affairs department for the world's largest conservation group. Responsible for securing and protecting over $35 million in government contracts and cooperative agreements as well as relatively soft policy and funding advocacy.

World Wildlife Fund

Congressional Relations Director

Created WWF's first Congressional Relations department. Led a six person advocacy staff, including debt-for-nature legislation and environmental aspects of the North American Free Trade Agreement.

The Honorable Jim Leach, US House of Representatives
