GOPI SURI

Gopi has over 20 years of experience in all aspects of Information Technology management. His career includes consulting and advising the C-Suite for Fortune 500 companies and IT management (CIO/CTO) for one of the largest Financial Services companies. Managed large staff and multi-million dollar budgets in both private and public sectors including federal government. Gopi managed smaller IT organizations including Non-profit entities. Gopi also founded an IT services company, a charitable trust, and an Indian origin network based in Howard County. Gopi actively mentors several startups and volunteers for many other professional associations in MD.

Gopi graduated from BS degree in Computer Science from India and an MBA from the University of Maryland with a concentration in Entrepreneurship.

► Vice President, ASIE (American Society of Indian Engineers)
► Co-Founder, IONHOCO (Indian Origin Network of Howard County)
► President, IASPA (India American Student Parent Association)
► Member, Maryland Tech Council & TEDCO

EXPERIENCE SUMMARY

Project Management	Implemented and managed various 5 MM+ large scale, enterprise and distributed projects for various Federal agencies and companies. Managed large and distributed teams across the globe.
Strategy and transformation	Developed strategies for business growth ranging from small non-profits to fortune 500 companies. Developed portfolio management to determine ROI for transformative business ideas and saved millions of dollars. Introduced loss mitigation technology and created foreclosure outsourcing business for financial services and generated additional revenues.
Executive Management	Worked with CIOs at a large entertainment company and a media company on cost optimization, data center strategies/consolidation, infrastructure virtualization, cloud computing options (private/public) and data management/transformation resulting in savings in excess of 30% of the costs.
Philanthropic and Community Involvement	Founded Suri Foundation, a non-profit organization in Howard County to provide toilets, drinking water, first aid centers in poor villages in developing countries and under developed countries. Mentored several startups in Maryland and advised through growth phase. Actively mentored University of Maryland graduates and connected students with potential employers and helped find internship opportunities.