

Nancy A. Briguglio, CLU, ChFC, MSM

Co-Founder and Principal of Brightworks Wealth Management, Nancy Briguglio oversees and coordinates the financial affairs of affluent families and business owners in the Baltimore Washington corridor.

With thirty years of experience in the financial and investment planning industries, Nancy has led at the executive level of Fortune 100 and Fortune 500 companies through the most challenging markets including the most recent financial tsunami. Using the Brightpath wealth management process, her firm helps their clients move forward with confidence. Her in-depth financial knowledge and wealth management acumen has afforded Brightworks the opportunity to manage millions of dollars in client's assets and plan for retirement while simultaneously helping clients insulate themselves from the various risks and challenges they face through sound risk mitigation strategies. A consummate team player, over the years Briguglio has built an impressive inventory of alliances with complimentary professionals who help her to implement strategic plans on her clients' behalf.

Prior to launching Brightworks Wealth Management, Nancy was serving the needs of affluent business owners and families through her affiliation with Columbia Benefits Consultants. Prior to joining that firm Nancy held numerous Senior Executive roles, including spending ten years as a Regional CEO in the Washington DC area affiliated with Sagemark Consulting, the wealth management division of Lincoln Financial Group.

Briguglio is a former adjunct professor at Florida Tech where she taught the Risk Management course for the Certified Financial Planner designation. She has a Masters of Science degree in Management and Chartered Financial Consultant designation from the American College, holds the Series 7, Series 66 and Series 24, life, health insurance licenses and long-term care certifications.

Nancy is the Founder and Chairperson of the BRAC Business Initiative Networking Committee helping government contractors access teaming and contracting opportunities with government agencies and prime contractors. A bad cook with a hearty appetite she has served at Elizabeth House Soup Kitchen for over 10 years. She has served in the past on the Dress for Success Baltimore, Childhelp Virginia, and The Society of Financial Service Professionals, National Capital Chapter boards.

Nancy and her husband Benjamin reside in the Columbia, Maryland.
