

Nicole Czarnecki

Professional Overview

Czarnecki is a graduate of the University of Maryland, Baltimore County. She graduated from UMBC with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science in December of 2013. After graduation, She began volunteering for the campaign of a Howard County, Maryland County Executive Candidate, then-Maryland State Senator (now-County Executive) Allan H. Kittleman.

Core Qualifications

Writing
Creativity
Speaking
Learning foreign languages
*

Critical and Applied Thinking
Utilizing social media
Volunteering
Researching
*

Accomplishments

In one of her classes in her final semester at UMBC—Hebrew 101—she passed the oral final with her professor having "no comment" as to how she did because she did that well. She also received an "A" in the class. She is very savvy at utilizing social media. For example, she has an About.Me page.

Education

Bachelor of Arts : Political Science, 2013
University of Maryland, Baltimore County — Catonsville, MD, United States

Experience

Volunteer
Chapelgate Presbyterian Church — Marriottsville, Maryland

She volunteered for Vacation Bible School in 2006, 2007, and 2008.

Volunteer
January 28, 2014 to December 1, 2014
Campaign For Allan H. Kittleman For County Executive — Columbia, MD
Volunteer.

Presentations

Czarnecki recorded several YouTube videos in which she gave political and other commentary.

Memberships/Scholarly Societies

Czarnecki was a member of Phi Theta Kappa at Howard Community College.