

Leslie Lampieri, MSW, LCSW-C

CURRICULUM VITE

- December 2015-Present Director, Patient and Family Support Services at Howard County General Hospital, A Member of Johns Hopkins Medicine, charged with developing a Department of Social Work, including writing job descriptions, hiring, supervising, developing and managing a budget. Oversight over the Pastoral Care/Department, Sexual Assault and Forensic Examiner and Intimate Partner Abuse Programs. Acts as Administrator On-Call on rotation with others in upper level management. Co-chair of the Ethics Committee.
- April 2014-April 2015 Leslie Rogers, LCSW-C, Owner, Private Practice. Specializing in working with clients living through grief, bereavement, chronic illness, as well as anxiety and depression.
- Feb.2011-Sept. 2019 Director, Claudia Mayer/Tina Broccolino Cancer Resource Center, Howard County General Hospital. In addition to providing Oncology Social Worker interventions listed below, oversee development and implementation of the center, build supportive relationships with other common cause organizations, and create a positive image for the hospital. Collaborate and coordinate with other HCGH management personnel and medical staff and network with organizations in the community to fulfill organizational goals.
- Dec. 2007 – Feb.2011 Clinical Social Worker II, Howard County General Hospital, Claudia Mayer Cancer Resource Center. Provide psychosocial support for cancer patients and their families in both outpatient and hospital settings. Work as part of a multi-disciplinary team. Participate in multi-disciplinary oncology rounds and tumor boards. Program development for cancer support services. Participate in many multi-disciplinary committees.
- Nov. 2007 - Sept. 2008 Clinical Social Worker, Gilchrist Hospice Care, Towson, MD. Provided on-call/weekend coverage of emotional support and community resources to all families in homecare service area as well as 24 bed inpatient hospice unit. Completed psychosocial assessments during admission process, provided crisis intervention and grief counseling to patients and families. Worked as member of a multi-disciplinary team. Made home visits.

- June 1998 - March 2003 Clinical Social Worker I, On-Call, Sidney Kimmel Comprehensive Cancer Center, Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, MD. Provided on-call coverage for oncology social work staff during absences. Provided brief psychosocial assessments, patient education and resource information to bone marrow transplant patients prior to inpatient admission via telephone. Provided referral services and follow-up assessments to all inpatient and outpatient oncology center patients who completed a depression inventory scale.
- Sept. 1996 - June 1998 Clinical Social Worker I, Sidney Kimmel Comprehensive Cancer Center, Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, MD. Conducted psychosocial assessments, provided emotional and supportive counseling and facilitated inpatient and outpatient discharges for the Bone Marrow Transplant Unit. Participated in family conferences. Facilitated patient care along with a multi-disciplinary team. Participated in many multi-disciplinary committees. Facilitated the treatment part of a nursing study with breast cancer patients undergoing bone marrow transplant.
- Sept. 1995 – July 1996 Medical Social Worker, Santa Clara Valley Medical Center, San Jose, CA. Coordinated inpatient discharges, conducted psychosocial assessments. Provided crisis intervention, bereavement, and supportive counseling for patients on medical/surgical acute unit. Provided social work services throughout hospital system on an on-call basis. Participated in family conferences. Facilitated patient care along with a multi-disciplinary team in a teaching hospital. Provided community resources. Assisted in orienting new social work employees. Participated in a re-engineering project.
- July 1994 – June 1995 Medical Social Worker, Sharp-Grossmont Hospital, La Mesa, CA. Coordinated inpatient discharges, conducted psychosocial assessments. Provided crisis intervention, bereavement, and supportive counseling for medical, pulmonary, and oncology patients on acute floor and intensive care units. Participated in family conferences. Facilitated patient care along with a multi-disciplinary team. Provided community resources. Provided services to outpatient cancer center on an as-needed basis. Facilitated therapy dog program for oncology unit.

- Sept. 1993 – April 1994 Social Work Intern, St. Mary Medical Center, O.B. Clinic, Long Beach, CA. Conducted psychosocial assessments and follow-ups in an outpatient clinic. Provided case management, referral and supportive counseling to low-income pregnant women. Provided community resources. Worked with a multi-disciplinary team.
- Sept. 1992 – April 1993 Social Work Intern, St. Joseph Medical Center; Community Outreach Services, Orange, CA. Provided outpatient short-term, goal-oriented therapy and case management services to elderly individuals and their families. Participated in hospice and bereavement assessments and counseling. Facilitated and co-facilitated Alzheimer’s Caregiver Support Group, Arthritis Support Group, and Adult Children of Aging Parents Group. Made home visits.
- April 1991 – June 1991 Undergraduate Student Intern, Loma Linda University Medical Center, Child Life Program, Loma Linda, CA. Worked with a team of Child Life Specialists serving the emotional and recreational needs of hospitalized children. Coordinated crafts and games in the inpatient playrooms. Participated in play therapy sessions under supervision.

EDUCATION

- Masters Degree in Social Work, 1994, University of Southern California, Los Angeles, CA. Concentration of instruction was in the field of health care.
- Bachelor of Arts, Sociology, 1992, University of California at Riverside, Riverside, CA.

PROFESSIONAL LICENSES

- LCSW-C, Licensed Certified Social Worker – Clinical, Maryland Certificate, Certified through the Maryland Board of Social Work Examiners to provide clinical supervision to counselors seeking to obtain clinical licensure.

TEACHING/PUBLIC SPEAKING EXPERIENCE

- 2007-2010 Facilitator for the American Cancer Society’s educational program, I Can Cope, in Howard County

- | | |
|--------------|--|
| 2007-2015 | Honorary speaker for Refresher Nursing Program at Howard County Community College |
| 2008-2018 | Teach quarterly educational sessions on Advance Directives for the community through the Howard County General Hospital's Population Health Initiative. |
| 2010-2015 | Meet with Community College of Baltimore County, Catonsville Campus, nursing students each semester under the direction of Sharon Burns, Clinical Nursing Supervisor |
| 2010-Present | Agency Supervisor for Field Education for social work student interns for a variety of graduate schools. |

PROGRAM OVERSIGHT

Provide management and supervision for 23 employees at the Howard County General Hospital.

Collaborated with Loyola University, University of Maryland School of Social Work, Rutgers's on-line social work program, to establish an internship program for graduate students at Howard County General Hospital (2008-Present).

Provide clinical supervision to 2-3 Social Work Interns annually.

Assisted in establishing, and facilitating weekly Multi-Disciplinary Oncology Rounds on inpatient oncology unit.

Established a Continuing Education Program for HCGH's Social Workers (2007-present)

COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP

- | | |
|---------------|-----------------------------|
| 2007-2015 | Cancer Committee |
| 2008- Present | Co-Chair - Ethics Committee |