
PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Highly motivated private piano instructor with a track record of success in guiding all groups of age students to perform that they want. Fluent in Korean and English, with ready access to the large Korean community in Maryland.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Eden Korean United Methodist Church MD – Main piano accompanist

February 2000 - Present

- Offer a Sunday worship service by accompanying piano with the choir, and another small group services.
- A private piano lesson in the vairyty of age group and presenting students recitals regularly.

Atomy America Inc. – Head sales representative

May 2018 - Present

- Meet regularly with new customers and represent the products and offer services.
- Analyze sales patterns and trands to ensure that sales always grow.
- Control stock, and manage company members to keep track of sales patterns and growth of sales.

Young Liquor MD. – Business manager

February 2000 – June 2010

- Keep the store open seven days a week.
- Served customers, ordered stock, keep the books.

EDUCATION

Towson State University, MD

Bachelor of Music in Performance (Piano), 2000

Towson State University, MD

Master of Music in Performance (Piano), 2002

PROFESSIONAL SKILLS

typing: 45 wpm in English, 175 wpm in Korean

People say I am immediately likable and easy to be with. I enjoy meeting others. By paying close attention to their current situation, I can introduce share address their needs and concerns.

INTERESTS

I am an active mom participant with our local Korean church, where my husband and I perform weekly on cello and piano. I have ten students taking private piano lessons with me. I support my two boys in baseball weekly with the Howard County Youth Baseball league, and I look forward to seeing them play all year long. They both playing cello and piano and I am so happy that 13 year old son Joseph accepted to All-State orchestra this year. We have two boys, aged 13 and 9.