EDWARD L. WADDELL

Managing Director of Accounting and Managerial Services

After earning a degree in accounting and commercial science from Benjamin Franklin University, Ed became a manager of the tax and special projects departments for a regional Washington firm. As a result of his extensive experience in accounting, tax and consulting services for clients in the Baltimore/Washington metropolitan area, Ed started his own firm in 1976. He has been a Certified Public Accountant in the State of Maryland since 1975 and has been a member of the American Institute of CPAs, the Maryland Association of CPAs, D.C. Institute of CPAs and the Association of Practicing CPAs.

Ed has been extensively involved in community and professional organizations during his career, including the Greater Washington Society of Association Executives, the Maryland Association of Non Profit Organizations, and the Estate Tax Planning Committee for the D.C. Institute of CPAs. He is a graduate of the Howard County Leadership Program. In addition, he has served on a number of committees and boards of the Howard County Economic Development Authority and Annapolis Chamber of Commerce and is also Past Chairman of both the Howard County Chamber of Commerce and Columbia Rotary Club.

Ed is presently on several committees and a Director and Treasurer of the Howard County Community College Foundation. He is also a member of the Howard County General Hospital Pension Committee, and serves on numerous Howard County government special tasks committees. The Maryland Small Business Administration named him the 1996 Accountant Advocate of the Year in addition to being named as one of the top twenty accountants in the State of Maryland in 1999. In 2005, Mr. Waddell received the Leadership Howard County Unsung Hero Award and the Howard County Community College Trustees' Award for Outstanding Service to the College.
