

Jae Chon Bio

Mr. Chon is currently employed at Brown Advisory, a Baltimore-based asset management firm, where he oversees two areas of the firm. Since joining the firm in January 2011, Mr. Chon has managed the firm's Trade Support team and is responsible for all Trading Operations for the firm including managed equity, fixed income and derivative securities. Additionally, Mr. Chon has served as Business Strategy Manager since January 2012. In this capacity, Mr. Chon oversees the firm's Business Strategy Group that manages, plans and directs internal strategic projects & initiatives for the firm.

Prior to joining Brown Advisory, Mr. Chon was responsible for Trading Operations at Legg Mason Capital Management, a subsidiary of Legg Mason, Inc. (NYSE: LM), where he contributed to and later managed Trading Operations for the firm. Prior to his employment at Legg Mason Capital Management, Mr. Chon was involved with T. Rowe Price and Morgan Stanley.

Since 2009, Mr. Chon has been a director and co-founder of the Stephen M. Long Memorial Foundation, a scholarship foundation that provides financial assistance to outstanding academic achievers who graduate from Mt. Hebron High School in Howard County and matriculate to the University of Maryland, College Park.

Mr. Chon is passionate about improving the lives of underserved families in Baltimore and has shown great enthusiasm in assisting others with educational advancement. Recently, Mr. Chon was recognized by members of the Baltimore community for his leadership, achievements and interest in bettering the community by being selected as a member of the Baltimore Business Journal's 2012 Class of "Rising Stars".

Mr. Chon earned his B.S. in both Finance and International Business from the Robert H. Smith School of Business at the University of Maryland. While at the University of Maryland, Mr. Chon was involved in several business societies including the Business Ethics Society and the Finance, Banking and Investment Society. Mr. Chon is currently enrolled at Georgetown University where he is a M.B.A. Candidate.