Andy Weinrub Bio

April 28, 2015

Andy Weinrub is the owner and chief executive officer of Vytex Windows, an award-winning vinyl window manufacturer in Laurel, MD. Recently listed as one of the nation's 100 largest window manufacturers by Window & Door magazine, Vytex is a leader in the Mid-Atlantic region.

Andy moved to the United States from Poland with his family as political refugees in 1970. He had his start in the window industry helping his brother install windows. He started working in a local window plant, and soon moved to factory management. As a natural leader, he used his knowledge to start his own manufacturing business currently located in Howard County. As CEO of Vytex, Andy oversees the operation of the entire facility, from design and manufacture to installation. His commitment to quality sets the tone for his 150 dedicated employees, ensuring Vytex's success.

Andy has deep roots in Howard County. In addition to establishing his business in Howard County, he has lived here since 1984 with his wife and raised his children here. These roots translate into a deep caring for the community and a desire to participate and give back whenever possible.
