Jessica –

Following up on our telephone discussion, my advice on Resolution 163-2015 is that the Council's inadvertent failure to vote on the motion to remove the Resolution from the table before voting to approve the Resolution does not affect the Resolution's validity.

Rule 1.014 (d) of the Council Rules of Procedure covers this situation:

Rule 1.014 - Rules, suspension and amendments.

(d) Failure to Follow the Rules of Procedure. A council action that is otherwise valid is not invalid because of the failure to follow these Rules of Procedure or the rules of parliamentary practice set forth in Robert's Rules of Order, Revised.

The motion, the second, and the vote to approve Resolution 63-2015 were all made in a valid manner by the Council, and the Council previously held the public hearing on the Resolution as required by Section 209 (c) of the Charter – therefore all the other procedural requirements that apply to the Resolution have been met and its approval was "otherwise valid" under Rule 1.014 (d). That being the case, Rule 1.014 (d) controls and Resolution 63-2015 has been validly approved.

If you have any questions, please let me know.

Thanks,

Jim
