

Stanley A. Levi

- Experience 1986 – 2015 Executive Director, Family and Children's Services of Central Maryland Baltimore, MD
CEO of a $7.5 Million non profit, non sectarian agency providing community based services through 16 programs in 13 locations.
Broad and extensive experience in work with governing and advisory boards program development and management with specific experience in child abuse treatment services domestic violence services parenting support
case management services to support self-sufficiency elder support
development of indicators to measure program impact community, foundation, and funder relationships grant writing and editing personnel management budget development and management tactical and strategic planning management of a diverse workforce spanning multiple geographical areas with differing demographics
- 1983 – 1986 Executive Director, Jewish Family Services of Tucson Tucson, AZ CEO of a small, non profit, non sectarian agency providing counseling and case management services to residents of Tucson, Az.
- 1974 – 1983 Executive Director, Family Service of Winnetka-Northfield Winnetka, IL CEO of a small, non profit, non sectarian agency providing counseling services to the residents of an upper middle class Chicago suburb.
- 1970 – 1974 Assistant Executive Director, Niles Family Services Niles, IL Supervised clinical staff and acted as a community liaison for a government funded family counseling agency in a suburban Chicago community.

Education

MBA M University of Chicago Graduate School of Business
AM AM University of Chicago School of Social Service Administration, with honors
BA BA University of Illinois, summa cum laude, Psychology

Honors

Phi Beta Kappa

Phi Kappa Phi

Arizona Social Worker of the Year

United Way Management Distinction Award

References References available on request.