Amendment 2 to Council Resolution CR134 -2024

(This amendment substitutes a revised Exhibit that uses parcel boundaries obtained from the Maryland Department of Planning. The prefiled Exhibit was created using Howard County's own parcel and land use data. After prefile it was learned that the State's requirement for Enterprise Zone boundary delineation is that parcel boundaries must be from the Maryland Department of Planning. Due to several factors, the adjustment from County to State parcel data caused more right of way to be included, capturing approximately 13.7% more acres in the official Enterprise Zone area.

This amendment also includes certain commercial/office properties at the corner of Snowden River Parkway and Route 175 and those located northeast of Meadowridge Road.)
